

said courts during the session thereof, and in vacation, or in chambers, before any of said judges; and shall also have jurisdiction to hear and determine all motions for a new trial, in cases tried in any of said courts, where such motions arise, either on questions of fact or for misdirection upon any matters of law, and all motions in arrest of judgment, or upon any matter of law determined by the said judge or judges, while holding said several courts; and the said Supreme Bench of Baltimore City shall make all needful rules and regulations for the hearing before it of all of said matters; and the same right of appeal to the Court of Appeals shall be allowed from the determination of the said court on such matters as would have been the right of the parties if said matters had been decided by the court in which said cases were tried.

Sec. 34. No appeal shall lie to the Supreme Bench of Baltimore city from the decision of the judge or judges holding the Baltimore City Court in cases of appeal from a justice of the peace, but the decision by said judge or judges shall be final.

Sec. 35. Three of the judges of the said Supreme Bench of Baltimore shall constitute a quorum of said court.

Sec. 36. All causes depending, at the adoption of this Constitution, in the Superior Court of Baltimore city, the Court of Common Pleas, the Criminal Court of Baltimore, and the Circuit Court of Baltimore, shall be proceeded in and prosecuted to final judgment or decree therein, except cases belonging to that class of jurisdiction over which is, by this Constitution, transferred to the Baltimore City Court, all of which shall, together with all cases now pending in the said Baltimore City Court, be proceeded in and prosecuted to final judgment in said last mentioned court.

Sec. 37. There shall be a clerk of each of the said courts of Baltimore city, except the Supreme Bench, who shall be elected by the legal and qualified voters of said city at the election for judges hereinbefore provided, and shall hold his office for six years from the time of his election, and until his successor is elected and qualified, and be re-eligible thereto, subject to be removed for wil-
